CELEBRATING 25 YEARS OF

God's faithfulness

The journey of CRW began with a small group of Victorians travelling to Honduras for a work trip following Hurricane Mitch in 1999. Upon arriving back home, the decision was made to “send a container”. After 18 months of collecting, the container was finally sent. The team decided to “send another one” and the adventure of “working on the next container” had started. A compassionate and dedicated team of volunteers have kept packing and loading all the precious gifts that are continually given. Irreplaceable and accountable partnerships have been established with other like-minded Canadian charities, thus ensuring that our gifts are strategic and beneficial.

CRW has been incredibly Blessed with caring donors that continue to keep our team busy packing, and we are very grateful.
